

Join the AFP

The Australian Federal Police (AFP) is Australia's national policing agency. Our role is to protect Australians and Australia's interests from serious criminal threats. We work with Australian and international agencies and organisations to combat terrorism, counter child sexual exploitation, tackle transnational and organised crime, combat cybercrime and counter fraud and corruption.

Visit our website to find out more and apply.

AFP Police Officer

Everyday People,
Legendary Work

What to expect

- / Get paid to train at the AFP College in Canberra across 26 weeks.
- / Graduate as a Constable of Policing with clear avenues for career progression.
- / Work in one of our many locations across Australia or deploy overseas.
- / A career that grows with you – specialise in a particular crime type or develop advanced capabilities such as canine handling, negotiations and tactical response.
- / Access to flexible working arrangements and generous leave entitlements.
- / Connection and support through the AFP's diversity and inclusion networks.
- / Free access to gyms and health and wellbeing services.

afp.gov.au/jobs

-  AusFedPolice
-  Australian-Federal-Police
-  AusFedPolice
-  AustFederalPolice
-  ausfedpolice

Launch your career with the AFP

Experience a career that is challenging and rewarding, where no 2 days are the same and the work you do will make a difference. The AFP gives you a lifetime of opportunities with over 200 types of roles and a variety of locations across Australia and the world.

As an AFP investigative or airport police officer, you will protect Australians and Australia's interests by outsmarting serious crime. Investigative police officers prevent and disrupt criminal activity and respond to emerging threats against the Commonwealth, and protect Commonwealth interests in Australia and abroad. Airport police officers keep nine major Australian airports safe and combat crime that crosses national and international borders.

Crime knows no borders and neither do we. Becoming an AFP police officer means you can work across Australia, or even internationally. The AFP can take you where you want to be.

Your path into the AFP

Pass each of these gateways to be placed in our merit pool.

- ✔ Check eligibility and apply
Start your journey at afp.gov.au/jobs
- ✔ Entrance exam
You will take a series of online tests, including cognitive ability tests.
- ✔ Fitness assessment
You will be assessed against the required physical standard.
- ✔ Employment Suitability Questionnaire
You will provide us with more details about your character, background and traffic history.
- ✔ Assessment centre
You will take part in team-based activities, scenarios and an interview.
- ✔ Security assessment
Your suitability to access official and classified information will be assessed.
- ✔ Health assessment
Your physical and psychological health will be assessed.

Eligibility

To be an AFP police officer, you must:

- be aged 18 years or over
- be an Australian citizen
- hold a valid full or provisional Australian driver's licence
- hold at least one of the following qualifications:
 - a Year 10 Certificate and 2 years of work experience
 - a Year 10 Certificate and a nationally recognised vocational education qualification at a Certificate III level or higher
 - a Year 12 Certificate
 - a vocational education or university qualification at a Diploma level or higher.