

Join the AFP

The Australian Federal Police (AFP) is Australia's national policing agency. Our role is to protect Australians and Australia's interests from serious criminal threats. We work with Australian and international agencies and organisations to combat terrorism, counter child exploitation, tackle transnational and organised crime, combat cybercrime and counter fraud and corruption.

Visit our website to find out more and apply.

AFP Specialist and Support roles

Everyday People,
Legendary Work

What to expect

- / A career that grows with you – get access to mentorship, coaching, professional development and leadership training opportunities.
- / Access to flexible working arrangements and generous leave entitlements.
- / Connection and support through the AFP's diversity and inclusion networks.
- / Free access to gyms and health and wellbeing services.
- / A job that makes a difference, where your skills will help keep Australians and Australian interests safe.

afp.gov.au/jobs

-  AusFedPolice
-  Australian-Federal-Police
-  AusFedPolice
-  AustFederalPolice
-  ausfedpolice

Launch your career with the AFP

In the AFP, you don't need to be a police officer to experience a career that is challenging, rewarding and diverse. The AFP gives you a lifetime of opportunities with over 200 different types of roles and locations across Australia and the world. Whether it's behind a desk, on the road, out in the community or overseas, the AFP can take you where you want to be.

Specialist and support roles in the AFP help keep Australians and Australia's interests safe. Working alongside operational policing areas, your skills and expertise will prevent and disrupt crime.

Specialist staff bring technical expertise that keeps the AFP at the forefront of policing. Specialist areas include investigations, intelligence, cybercrime, forensics, fraud and anti-corruption.

Support staff work to keep frontline members safe, healthy, informed and connected. Support areas include human resources, psychology, health and fitness, finance, legal, information technology, property management, procurement, communications and media.

Not all heroes wear uniforms

AFP specialist and support staff may not wear a police uniform, but their work contributes to saving the lives and livelihoods of everyday Australians.

➔ Specialist areas include:

- investigative assistants
- intelligence analysts
- cybercrime analysts
- forensic accountants
- financial analysts
- forensic scientists.

➔ Support areas include corporate services, such as:

- human resources
- legal
- health and fitness
- communications and media
- information technology
- security
- procurement and logistics.

Your future starts here

Go to afp.gov.au/jobs to find all current AFP job vacancies and learn about the application process.

To apply for any role in the AFP you must be an Australian citizen and hold, or be able to obtain, a security clearance. Many roles will require qualifications in the relevant field.