

ClickFit

BEC Bingo

List of red flags and safe signs:

HOW TO PLAY

1. Make sure all participants have read the ClickFit: BEC Safety Kits before playing
2. Check off the red flags and safe signs as you go until you reach BEC BINGO!

-  New supplier account
-  Slightly different email address
-  Account number matches with previous invoices from same supplier
-  Threats of delays or fees if payment is not received
-  Unexpected change to bank details
-  Changes to payment details are independently confirmed
-  Generic email greeting 'Hello customer'
-  Urgent payment request
-  Sender asks to keep payment confidential
-  Never reply to suspicious emails
-  Pressure to act immediately

-  Confirms new email by calling person via trusted contact details
-  Payment redirected to a different account
-  A second person reviews unusual or large payments
-  New contact details
-  Unusual requests from employer are verified in-person or trusted contact
-  Payment request outside of normal hours
-  Unusual invoice amount, timing or supplier
-  Unexpected login to device or MFA
-  Unfamiliar link, document or attachment
-  Pressure to make same-day payment
-  Unexpected changes to bankroll or employee details

Stop your scroll. Check before you pay. Protect your business.

Learn more and stay ClickFit www.afp.gov.au/clickfit